

Sentinel Academy Mission Statement

Ability to deliver a high level of quality training, which meet and exceed the industry standards for both learning experience and price.

Thus helping the Academy to adjust to the continuous market changes, offering long term value and the highest standard of teaching to its customers and candidates, which will effectively contribute to the development of safety and security.